Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the information submitted in the Pretrial

Services Agency report establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant's criminal history includes a charge for conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute a controlled substance. For this charge, defendant was sentenced to 36 months imprisonment, followed by a 3 year term of supervised release. According to the revocation judgement, defendant violated a mandatory condition of supervised release (found in possession of marijuana and $23,098 after a routine traffic stop). Defendant has also been fined for assault and battery on a police officer, failure to comply, disorderly conduct, public intoxication, and interfering with a police officer.
2. Defendant's dismissed charges consists of: assault and battery, simple assault, failure to comply, destroying private property, trespassing, domestic abuse, harassing phone calls, stalking, possession of marijuana (2-4 oz.), evading arrest or detention, and disturbing the peace. Defendant's charges where the dispositions are unknown consists of: possession of marijuana with intent to distribute, disorderly conduct, simple assault on a police officer, aggravated assault on a police officer, and possession of a controlled substance with intent to distribute.
3. Evidence at the hearing indicates that defendant was a leader in a cocaine and marijuana trafficking organization in 2013. He was considered a fugitive from justice until his arrest in early February 2018.
4. Law enforcement twice unsuccessfully attempted to arrest the defendant on February 2018. On both occasions, defendant evaded arrest after high speed chases on busy Houston streets, endangering the public. He was finally apprehended on February 8 after again attempting to flee on foot.
5. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that he is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
6. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel.

On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on February 21, 2018.

United States Magistrate Judge
